

KING CHARLES III CORONATION MEDAL

Two outstanding members of Squamish RCL # 277 were nominated by their comrades of Branch #277 to receive the King Charles III Coronation Medal: Russell Robertson and Greg Trenholm.

This Canadian commemorative medal was created to mark His Majesty King Charles III's Coronation on May 6, 2023. The King Charles III Coronation Medal is a visible and tangible way to recognize outstanding individuals who have made a difference in their communities. The Medal signifies themes that King Charles III and all Canadians hold dear, including service, the environment and sustainability, and our nation's diversity.

Russel Robertson (Left) and Greg Trenholm (Right) received this medal at a special ceremony in Surrey BC, on February 22, 2025. Each member has made a significant contribution to their country, to the province of BC, and to their community. Both members made outstanding achievements abroad in Bosnia and Afghanistan in United Nations and NATO peacekeeping security missions. Their exceptional achievement at home and abroad brings credit to Squamish RCL # 277, to Canada, and all Canadians.

Comrades of Squamish RCL #277 congratulate Russell and Greg on achieving this esteemed honor. They have demonstrated a profound commitment to improving the world around them. Their dedication to making a difference is inspiring.
